In some courses no grade is given and only its completion is confirmed by the lecturer's signature

In the lecturers' opinion Mr. Florczak proved to be a solid, methodical, and creative student, aware of his responsibilities and the necessity to focus on self-development.

I, personally, remember him from my classes in phonetics and in sociolinguistics as an eager and inquisitive student, always prepared for class and making steady progress. I have no doubts that he is a suitable candidate for further studies.
